

TURNING WATER INTO WINE

The Bible is written in code language to hide its true meaning and power from those who haven't earned the right to use it.

And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look therein.

-- Revelation 5:4

The Bible says the book was sealed with seven seals. That means that scripture is encoded and no one today can break the code.

The inability of clergy and theologians to understand scripture (i.e., "to look therein") has left the world in a very sorrowful condition. So the writer states, "And I wept much."

Religion is actually the most advanced science there is. Unfortunately, most religionists are so backwards that, in their hands, religion has been turned into a weapon of mass destruction.

The vast majority of clergymen and theologians are just as petty, mean-spirited, sinful, corrupt and ignorant as the people they claim to lead. As Jesus said, "If the blind lead the blind they both wind up in the ditch."

People who would be disciples of Jesus' good news must be willing to be completely re-taught and transformed if they are to wield one iota of the power Jesus said his followers after him would wield.

The goal of Religion is to integrate or unify the higher self (the Father) with the lower self (the Virgin Mother) to produce the perfected will (Jesus Christ).

This fusion of the two great realms of being has been metaphorized as the sacred wedding of Christian Rosencruz among western esotericists.

In the New Testament it is referred to as a wedding feast.

And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

-- John 2:1

The higher self is as much a part of us as our own jugular vein. But most of us don't know it's even there because it appears to be dormant or "dead" and so some spiritual traditions symbolized the higher self as the Lord of the Dead. It is deep in our subconscious and so it is stylized as the Lord of the Underworld.

One of the most effective means of unifying the higher and lower parts of being is meditation. In lots of scriptural passages, the trance state that's the result of meditation is symbolized as water.

At the wedding feast Jesus turned water into wine. It is necessary, how, to understand what that miracle means.

There are energy centers in the body called chakras. When one of the chakras is opened, chemicals are released which can actually give you a very powerful natural high. That high can literally work for days.

Several years ago a counsellor named Reynolds Abrams who is an Ekan Karist helped me open my heart chakra using only the mantra Hu and the color green. I was drunk for two days. It was the first time I ever experienced divine universal love. Abe had to hold me up and walk me back to my building where I basked in my altered state for two days.

When such a true high is possible, why are people still killing themselves with alcohol, coke and heroin?

God is the most High and man is a little god, created in the Father's image. Until the universe contracts man will seek to get high because the "normal" state of Beta brain wave consciousness is actually an unnatural burden on the mind of man that's crippling him.

I don't teach people not to get high. I teach them how to get most high.

And they can't get most high using dope.

When meditation (water) activates the chakras and they stimulate the glands to flood the body with endorphins and dopamine, that is the divine act of turning water into wine.
